

No One's Hero

Count Raven

Where in Hell did you get so wrong
You're out to ban Rock 'n Roll songs
You want the people to follow you
Rule the masses, that's Rock 'n Roll too

You're no ones hero
A mental zero

A Christian you say you are
I saying that you're misusing His name
You're liar, you've gone too far
When He comes you'll be the one to blame

You're no ones hero
A mental zero

The greatest crime of all time
Another fool in the line
You say that you will follow the Lord
But when He comes you won't be heard
No, no way

You're no ones hero
A God-damned mental zero

Talk about the blind leading the blind
You're not nice, you're evil and unkind
Your moral views has caused the pain
That's why no one loves each other and you're to blame
Bastards!

You're no ones hero
A mental zero
You're no ones hero
