A Common Disaster

Cowboy Junkies

A candle burning for everything I've ever wanted A tattoo burned for everything I've ever wanted and lost I had a long list of names that I kept in my back pocket But I've cut it down to one and your name's at the top

Won't you share a common disaster? Share with me a common disaster A common disaster

I found myself a friend but he's crooked as a stick in water So now I'm writing fairy tales to catch the spirit of revenge He's got a plan to steal my little sister But I'm not too concerned 'cause I will get him in the end

Won't you share a common disaster? Share with me a common disaster A common disaster

Going to find me someone to share A common disaster

Run away with me from a life so cramped and dull Not worry too much about the happily-ever-after And just keep the Caddy moving Till we're well beyond that hill

Won't you share a common disaster? Share with me a common disaster A common disaster