Lock Me Up

Cowboy Troy

Lock me up! and eat the little key with jam come on, lock me up! cause my heart is loving you again someone ought to sue me for what i let you do to me someone ought to sue me baby for all i let you do to me rag upon the constable who let me out again

i'm so emotional
i'm too emotional

drowning in the booze again for notes you never send

doctor doctor, i don't know

so you gotta lock me up! who the hell believes in love? me! so, hurry, lock me up! trust me dude, i've seen enough jesus, he won't see me so smother me and free me buddha, she won't see me, baby so smother me and free me bowing out with grace and dignity is for the birds

crazy glue my lips before they shout those favorite words i'm so emotional

Aaaaaahhhh! hey, that was my heart! Aaaaaahhhh! lock it up or let it out Aaaaaahhhh! (what was that?) i told you. that was my heart! Aaaaaahhhh! (so?) dude, lock it up or let it out doctor doctor, i don't know
