

Remind Me Why I'm Crazy

Craig Morgan

In my troubled mind
Lives the cold hard truth
Buried in lies to myself
Of how I feel about you
Sometimes I forget that you're gone
And how lonely losing you made
Then your memory drops by
To remind me why I'm crazy

And I cry like a man shouldn't cry
It ain't easy being out of your mind
Not a night goes by
I don't close my eyes
Knowing thoughts of you will wake me
To remind me why I'm crazy

I can't keep a job, I'm my only friend
I'll tell me I'm doing okay
Then reality kicks in
Most times I don't know where I am
But you never cease to amaze me
How you find me
And remind me why I'm crazy

And I cry like a man shouldn't cry
It ain't easy being out of your mind
Not a night goes by
I don't close my eyes
Knowing thoughts of you will wake me
To remind me why I'm crazy
I got your memory
To remind me why I'm crazy
