

Bright White Light

Crash Kings

As all my summer days have passed
A ray of light has come at last
It blinds the eyes, the mind, and soul
Will love prevail? I'll never know

And in the sun
Some days are on the run
Suddenly my heart and soul's on the table
Where have I been
And what was I thinking
Out of the darkness
Stepping in the bright white light

As I devise a master plan
I ask myself who was that man
The one who cared not for a friend
The story lost without an end

And in the sun
Some days are on the run
Suddenly my heart and soul's on the table
Where have I been
And what was I thinking
Out of the darkness
Stepping in the bright white light

Hungry for love
Hungry for you
How did you appear out the blue?
Where have I been
What was I thinking

Out of the darkness
Stepping in the bright white light [x2]
