

Hesitate

Crash Kings

Stuck on the subject of
When it comes push to shove
Can you make a sacrifice?
Is this a leap of faith?
Or maybe a back away
Everybody has their vice

Better not to hesitate
Jump on the things you know that you want when you want 'em before it's too late, ooo
Better not to hesitate
Jump on the things you know that you want when you want 'em before it's too late, ooo

Stand up and walk on by
Try not to occupy
All that pulls you from desire
Tomorrow's another day
Gave you some room to play
Let the inner voice inspire

You wanted to crush this love
For something brand new
And because time stands for no one

Better not to hesitate
Jump on the things you know that you want when you want 'em before it's too late, ooo
Better not to hesitate
Jump on the things you know that you want when you want 'em before it's too late, ooo

Shake it up, baby, don't you wait, honey, show me you can start a riot with those eyes and still keep a flow
And take me downtown, sit around doin' nothing, doesn't really matter 'cause I want you to know, I want you to know

You wanted to crush this love
For something brand new
And all because time stands for no one

Better not to hesitate
Jump on the things you know that you want when you want 'em before it's too late, ooo
Better not to hesitate
Jump on the things you know that you want when you want 'em before it's too late, ooo
