

It's Only Wednesday

Crash Kings

It happens only in the day time, she looks to me and says, but it's only in the night time ohhh She pulls me closer to her body, so I can hear

There's a kink and then a scream,
but it's only in her dream
I look around
and its you, oh oh ohhh
I can't believe it's only Wednesday.
And she can't see that everyone is there
Except for me
I know I
Don't want to lose this time

Out of knowledge in a way form passing through her head as it spins out of life and time She keeps on trying to fight the evil in her mind

There's a kink and then a scream,
but it's only in her dream
I look around
and its you, oh oh ohhh
I can't believe it's only Wednesday.
And she can't see that everyone is there
Except for me
I know I
Don't want to lose this time

And she looks to me,
but she can't even believe it
And she looks to me,
but she can't even believe it
she can't even believe it
she can't even believe it but I don't want to lose this time

There's a kink and then a scream,
but it's only in her dream
I look around
and its you, oh oh ohhh
I can't believe it's only Wednesday.
And she can't see that everyone is there
Except for me
I know I
Don't want to lose this time
