

Mountain Man

Crash Kings

I'm sitting on top of a mountain
She's rocking that valley down below
Switch back to the peak with a blindfold
Bombing down at the top of my lungs screaming oh
Straight out on a head wall oh
Turned into a free fall

I'm sipping on some sunshine
I'm gonna leave it for the morning in the after-life
And she's drunk by the day time
I bet she feels it just the same in the evening

I'm sipping on some sunshine
I'm gonna leave it for the morning in the after-life
And she's drunk by the day time
I bet she feels it just the same not anymore

I'm sitting on top of a hillside
There's a one way path that's taking me home
Climbing up to the peak with a blindfold
Bombing down at the top of my lungs screaming oh
Straight out on a head wall oh
Turned into a free fall

I'm sipping on some sunshine
I'm gonna leave it for the morning in the after-life
And she's drunk by the day time
I bet she feels it just the same in the evening

I'm sipping on some sunshine
I'm gonna leave it for the morning in the after-life
And she's drunk by the daytime
I bet she feels it just the same not anymore

I'm sipping on some sunshine
I'm gonna leave it for the morning in the after-life
And they're drunk by the day time
I bet they feel it just the same
I bet they feel it just the same yeah

I'm sipping on some sunshine
I'm gonna leave it for the morning in the after-life
And she's drunk by the day time
I bet she feels it just the same
I bet she feels it just the same yeah
I bet she feels it just the same
I bet she feels it just the same yeah
I bet she feels it just the same not anymore
