

Ms Mysterious

Crash Kings

Up all night just talking to the sunrise
Fills me up so much I get high
Never all put underneath the silence
She tells me everything with a rise

It's alright, I'm escaping
Been so long and I know when I'm wrong
This is real, there's no mistaken
Doesn't take that much to stay strong
She's my separation from the outside world

My heart is racing, can you feel my love?
I'm not breaking at the sight of blood

It's hard to understand the way it was when
All those night alone I got by
Stroke of luck and then it's like a new page
I wish those lonely days goodbye

It's alright, I'm escaping
Been so long and I know when I'm wrong
This is real, there's no mistaken
Doesn't take that much to stay strong
She's my separation from the outside world

My heart is racing, can you feel my love?
I'm not breaking at the sight of blood
My heart is racing in the midnight sun
I'm inviting what she's radiating

Hear me, Miss Mysterious
Been waiting, this is serious
Seems right, Miss Mysterious

My heart is racing, can you feel my love?
I'm not breaking at the sight of blood
My heart is racing in the midnight sun
I'm not breaking at the sight of blood
I'm inviting what she's radiating
