

Some Call It Love

Crash Kings

Some call it love, I call it my home
I'll crawl right back into my little world
It's mine
Feels good to know what's there
I'll be gone a long time
Come home when you feel it's right

Soon this will pass
And we'll all be home again
Stay on your mark, get set and go again
We won't be held down
But who knows?

Run for your life, it's coming
For you, love
Just crawl right back into your little world
It's yours
Feels good to know what's there
You'll be gone a long time
Come home when you feel it's right

Soon this will pass
And we'll all be home again
Stay on your mark, get set, and go again
Cool down so we can't get burned
Move on, keep the stones unturned
Fool all 'til we find what's real again
We won't be held down
But who knows?

Some call it love
I call it my home
