

White Wolf

Crash Kings

The only only road I know
The night descends and life begins
But only for the lone white wolf
Who cries into with violence

In the dark of the deep blue dream
The wolf appears in the white of snow
An ode to the open road
A guardian amongst the shadows

Hunger awake inside
Loyal to the newborn child
Don't disturb the balance of
That which shows the ways of love

The only only road I know
The day ascends and life begins
And not only for the lone white wolf
Who cries into with violence

Hunger lies awake inside
Loyal to the newborn child
Don't disturb the balance of
That which shows the ways of love
The ways of love
