Winter Song

Crash Test Dummies

I can't say that I miss my old dog much
And I've never looked back since I left home long ago
But I hoped a trip into the country
Would help remind me all the things I used to know

That's what I came for That's what I hoped for

There once was good blood in the breeze here We rode across the lake each new year What have I remembered What did this used to be

The ice, it used to shine upon our river

It was a mirror that the cold dark water ran way deep beneath

And here were many years of winter drownings

I kept track of these things as they were told to me

And that's what I looked for That's what I came for...

The changes of the year were once a blessing Well this year they're the seasons of my discontent But I cannot rewrite my old diaries I can only recall all the things that came & went

But that's what I'd come for And that's what I'd hoped for...
