

Primitive State

Creature Feature

Hurry home
The daylight is fleeting
Night falls
Soon they'll be waking

Hear them howling at the rising moon
Head for safety, they are coming soon

Shifting bones
Thoughts turn to bloodlust
Darkness
The change is upon us

Hungry shadows spill across the floor
Run for cover, there's bones at the door

Ancient curse of the blood
Cleverly lying awaits
Evolution coerced
To a primitive state
When the moon is reborn
Time to call for the beast
Discard the trappings of man
When the wolf is unleashed

Tooth and nail
Rip you to pieces
One night
Humanity ceases

Hear them howling at the rising moon?
Head for safety, they are coming soon

Shed their skin
We're rabid with hunger
Bend down
With lambs sent to slaughter

Hungry shadows spill across the floor
Run for cover, there's bones at the door

Ancient curse of the blood
Cleverly lying awaits
Evolution coerced
To a primitive state
When the moon is reborn
Time to call for the beast
Discard the trappings of man

Killers in rounded boots
Prowling out in the dark
Savages on the hunt
They will tear you apart
And circling the house
Claws scrape against the floor
Don't let them catch your sin

The wolves are at the door

Ancient curse of the blood
Evolution coerced
To a primitive state
