

The Path Once Chosen

Crescent Shield

Sailing the violent seas, churning waves
Drifting aimlessly, like a child on an endless ocean
Still my path is set for me, I'll push away
Downwind south sail into tranquil waters

Sail on- the course is set for me
Sail on- on ocean's arms
Sail on- by the wake of sorrowed tears
The path is set again for me

The path that is before me isn't burned in the ground
And the footsteps that are left behind
Are the victims of the wind and rain

Walk on- The trial is still unseen
Walk on- To history
Walk on- Knowing now what is my guide
And the path's enough for me

I'll always know the way
From traveled days
To the unknown

I'll always find my way
From day to day
Here I'll stay

[2nd Chorus]
