

There's something that I need to tell you, please open up your eyes.

I wanna be next to you forever, even in bad times.

Sometimes you'd wonder why I'm angry when you smile.

Sometimes you'd blame me for behaving like a bad guy.

Chorus:

But you're the only one who gets me, what I want and what I need. Never let you down, you make my heart beat.

You're everything I've got and I'm sorry for my sadness but now

I understand that you're just in my mind.

Verse:

I wanna hold you, I want to kiss you, I wanna see you here.

Without sorrow, without pain, without any fear.

You're so pretty, you're sent straight out of my dream.

I hope you'll come true and you'll love me, I want to know how it feels.

Interlude:

Maybe in my head you're someone who I've met.

Maybe I've wasted time when I could have seen you smile.

I wanna see you here and not feel any fear.

I wanna find you now, It doesn't matter how.
