

Something to Live For

Criminal Collection

There is still something to live for.
These are the reasons for our lives.
I want to experience more and more.
With all my friends who do not know lying.

I want to meet a nice girl.
I would never want to stay alone.
I want to see the world from another side,
from which I'd never seen before.

I want to tell you that I am happy for these times.
And I feel the same way every night when I close my eyes.

I want to get up earlier.
I want to read more books.
I want to change the world.
I wanna know how it works.

There is no time to worry
no time to cry
We live our stories
until we die.

I want to tell you that I am happy for these times.
And I feel the same way every night when I close my eyes.
I still miss so many things I want to do.
But I'll do it for myself and for you, too.

I want to tell you that I am happy for these times.
And I feel the same way every night when I close my eyes.
I still miss so many things I want to do.
But I'll do it! There is still something to live for.
