

You Are Everything

Criminal Colecion

When we were younger we enjoyed every minute of our life
We cared 'bout nothin' 'cept music, skateboardin' and holdin' tight.
Now we're all grown up and adults--holdin' tight was lost in the clouds Everybody is serious, everybody has changed

I know it's stupid to try to go back to that life try to relive what happened and change the past

You are everything I need but something stuck in history every moment is like an ocean blue, infinite and darkness too You are everything I want, but you told me don't say don't.
You ask me why all those things come true everyday

Front of the house is empty, we are inside and trying to live an adult life remember the time when were outside, remember the time when we were five

NO! it doesn't matter baby No! it's our way so what?
NO! this can not happen baby NO! I don't wanna be slave of my life

Be with me and help me please change our lives and turn the sheets
I promise you it will be okay
when you're with me another day

Be with me and help me please
change our lives and turn the sheets
I promise you it will be okay
when you're with me...everyday
