

I Only Deal in Truth

Crowbar

So you've been judging me
You need to feel my pain first
You may not understand
Just what it means to feel cursed
I never lost my faith
Although at times my hurt showed
But now the past is done
And I'm about to explode

I need to bury this
Leave it burned alive
I need to bury this

The time is growing near
For you to bow down to me
I only deal in truth
Because a blind man can't see
So who are you to judge
You will remember my words
And when you're proven wrong
It will be my voice that's heard

I need to bury this, leave it burned alive
I need to bury this, those who see me are blind
I need to bury this, leave in burned alive
I need to bury this, those who see me are blind

I only deal in truth, only deal in truth
Those who see me are blind
