Remember Tomorrow

Crowbar

Unchain the colors before my eyes
Yesterday's sorrows, tomorrow's white lies
Scan the horizon, the clouds take me higher
I shall return from out of fire

Tears for remembrance and tears for joy
Tears for somebody, for this lonely boy
Out in the madness, the all seeing eye
Flickers above us to light up the sky

Unchain the colors before my eyes
Yesterday's sorrows, tomorrow's white lies
Scan the horizon, the clouds take me higher
I shall return from out of fire
