

Hundred Miles

Crowder

Bless the Lord, oh my soul
Sing praise to Him and Him alone
Bless the Lord, oh my soul
Sing praise with me, you heavenly hosts

And I can't help myself
There is no one else
Like you, God

And I could sing a song
A hundred miles long
But it won't compare

Bless the Lord, oh my soul
Sing praise to Him and Him alone
Bless the Lord, oh my soul
Sing praise with me, you heavenly hosts

And I can't help myself
'Cause there is no one else
Like you, God

And I could sing a song
A thousand miles long
But it won't compare

Hallelujah, sing to the Lord
Hallelujah, my soul, my soul rejoice
Hallelujah, sing to the Lord
Hallelujah, my soul, my soul rejoice

My soul, my soul rejoice
