

I forgot how to live
At the moment I was born
Place beyond vast
All the bonds are lost
My being scratches the surface
My being scratches the surface
Of life
Like a bee trapped in a glass
A Life-form breathing the gas
Of hollow paradise
My being scratches the surface
Of life

Every day of my existence scars the Earth
With every drop of life I dare to take to leave with better soul than with which I came
Is my deed to the world in return

I forgot how to live
In the moment I was born
Place beyond vast
All the bonds are lost
Like a bee trapped in a glass
A Life-form breathing the gas
Of hollow paradise
My being is just scratching the surface
Of life

Země, jsem tvým hostem
A až odbije půlnoc žití,
Splatím vše, co jsem pozřel
A nechám jenom kosti...
Odejdu do světa, v němž se
Stírají nerovnosti,
Až zpěv nočních ptáků dozní

Our clocks are ticking
TICK-TOCK TICK-TOCK
Just one sip of life in the Earth café
When you depart, don't leave inbalance
Just one sip of life in Earth's Café
Cause death prevails time
