

Search For The Sun

Crucifix

Here we stand with a passion for life
A world without hate, no violence, no strife

See all there is to see
Hear all there is to hear
Know all there is to know
Feel all there is to feel

A world without war, where we can be free
Our future, our earth, begins with you and me

A search for life in this dirty world
A cry of pain and anguish for love
Searching for the sun in this fucking dirty world

The twisted and tortured, yearning for love
Searching for the sun in this fucking dirty world
No powers to control us, stand for freedom
No wars to kill us, work for peace

No more hate to divide us, stop your fighting
More love to join us, more love to join us
