

Blood and Shame

Cryonic Temple

Look into my eyes and tell me are you not afraid?
My inner pain still haunts me
You made me what I am today

Are you proud
of your emotionless machine?
Give me the order
Blood and shame will fall on me

Coward is what you are
Coward is the life you chosen

We will win, we will lose
Not choose our own life
But soon the table will turn
But soon the table will turn

Now the people have joined forces
Together we will take back what is ours
My life and will belong to me again

Are you proud
of your emotionless machine?
Give me the order
Blood and shame will fall on me

Coward is what you are
Coward is the life you chosen

We will win, we will lose
Not choose our own life
But soon the table will turn
But soon the table will turn
