

Under Attack

Cryonic Temple

Only time I feel alone is on the battlefield
All I see is death and fear
We don't talk about a hero that will save us all

If it was the war we wouldn't need a hero
And we all just lived a life not like this

Under attack
we strike back
Under attack
we strike back
Under attack
we strike back
Under attack
we strike back

How can one man tell you What to live and what to die for Be your own destiny and make your own history

If it was the war we wouldn't need a hero
And we all just lived a life not like this

Under attack
we strike back
Under attack
we strike back
Under attack
we strike back
Under attack
we strike back
Under attack

If it was the war we wouldn't need a hero
And we all just lived a life not like this

Under attack
we strike back
Under attack
we strike back
Under attack
we strike back
Under attack
we strike back

Under attack
we strike back
Under attack
we strike back
Under attack
we strike back
Under attack
we strike back
Under attack
