I GOTTA MESSAGE FOR YOU
Think you'll understand
Yeah, don't wanna force it down you
Just wanna share the plan
Now baby c'mon
I'm not so crazy now
Neither are you
Not with all I've been through
If you see the light ahead of you
And you don't like what you're going through
If you don't wanna wear the Devil's crown
Breakdown!
You've got something to tell me
You'd better spit it out, Yeah
But if you try to sell me
I think you better stand back
Baby, C'mon, I wasn't born yesterday
Oh no no, and neither were you
Not with all you've been through
If you see the light ahead of you
And you don't like what you're going through
If you don't wanna to wear the Devil's crown
