

Learn to Fly

Crystal Lewis

Sometimes i sit wondering
I wonder what the future brings
I wonder what tomorrow means
I've thoughts of fear, they frighten me
About days ahead that i can't see
I want to know with certainty
So i'm faced with a choice
A fork in the road
I can raise my voice in protest
Or surrender and let go

And learn to fly
Learn to soar
Above the doubts around my door
Learn to see
Learn to try
Learn to trust
Let go and fly

Life isn't always fair it seems
At times i feel cheated out of my dreams
Where i am isn't where i planned to be
My plans are changed without my consent
To come this way wasn't my intent
The road i face isn't the one i meant to take
So i'm faced with a choice
A fork in the road
I can raise my voice in protest
Or surrender and let go

I look beyond the boundaries of my expectations
There is so much more to life than what it seems
The past is preparation for the future
I release the reigns i've held and let you lead
