

Never Alone

Crystal Lewis

Day fades to darkness
I face again tears in the night
Fear and confusion closing in on my mind
Reaching up, hoping to find? i'm

Never alone
And only an arms length away
From falling into your embrace
Never so far
And nothing can separate me from your love
Forever in your arms and
Never alone

Dreams of assurance
Dreams of delight in being known
Peace and contentment
At the thought of being home
Reaching up, not letting go?

So, open my eyes to see
The hope just beyond the doubt? always trusting
Your unfailing love for me
Is reaching in when i'm reaching out
