

Blessed By The Gods

Crystal Tears

In a land that is so close and yet so far away where a man can dream and yet can close no eyes in a land that faith is fate and grows up in the skies where all the madness is the logic of today now i stand alone and dive in our past the ways we used and how we have survived the battles we had lost showed that we wouldn't last for long eternity seemed so far away bridge i:

searching for answers
we must have been...

chorus:
blessed by the gods - divine is our power blessed by the gods - we hold victory blessed by the gods - we 're touching the stars our fate is a part of a game the game is us we have to play we have to cleanse our souls and pray 'cause we 're blessed by the gods tell me what's wrong and what is right tell me what lies beneath our eyes 'cause truth is all for us bridge ii:

come seek for answers
we must have been...

chorus:
blessed by the gods...

solo

yeah...

chorus:
blessed by the gods...
