

Letting Go

Cuff the Duke

Is it time we say goodbye and move on with our lives?
Will it be worth it in the end? I can't say for sure.

How would I know that it would come to this,
You have a lot that you want to give
But I'm letting go, I'm letting go.

After all the time we've shared, it's hard to think of you not there.
But I will always hear your voice when I question what right.

How would I know that it would come to this,
You have a lot that you want to give
But I'm letting go, I'm letting go.
It won't be easy to walk away but I know that I just can't stay
I'm letting go, I'm letting go.

Is it time we say goodbye and move on with our lives?
Will it be worth it in the end? I can't say my friend.

How would I know that it would come to this,
You have a lot that you want to give
But I'm letting go, I'm letting go.
It won't be easy to walk away but I know that I just can't stay
I'm letting go, I'm letting go.
