

So Many Times Before

Cuff the Duke

All the love we've halted here I pray will never pass.
The coward in the corner lurks and lingers in the dark.

Oh I've been down this road,
So many times before.
It's never gotten me anywhere
That I want to go

Separate and nullify and the shadows on the ground.
Every morning war again through which nothing id devised.

Oh I've been down this road,
So many times before.
It's never gotten me anywhere
That I want to go

The longer we leave lessons unlearned, blame only those who try
The emptiness will fill our lives no longer will we abide.

Oh I've been down this road,
So many times before.
It's never gotten me anywhere
That I want to go
