

We've Got It

Cults

I bet you think that you're the only ones
That the brightest (undefinable) burning on you
You keep on leaving like (?) a smoking gun (undefinable)

We've got it And we won't be a problem anymore
We've got it (undefinable)

Do you believe that what is done is done
That you can come so far and never leave them a clue

We've got it And we won't be a problem anymore
We've got it (undefinable)

We're not here waiting up for you
There's no more time for that
We're not here praying just for you
There's no more tears to lean on

We're not here waiting up for you
Just you remember that
We're not here praying just for you
There's no more tears to cry for you
