

Jermaine Dupri

Curren$y

La Musica De Harry Fraud (Uh)

Rain on the Phantom windshield, tears when the friends kill How that shit feel? You not equipped for the field
And they smell fear, clouds darken as they draw near How'd you get here shit, like a shitty record deal
Pulled up on factory wheels with the racing gear
I could make a million appear, no back and forth
With a boss who could have you brought up in the trunk of a car
At that point it's past talk, so you should leave it in park
That's way more smart, Andretti, I put years into this art
You cannot compare me, went from hood rich to wealthy
A pandemic outside, I'm tryna stay healthy, God help me
I'm dope as fuck, they hassle me in airports 'cause dogs smell me
Y'all sketchy, that's why y'all can't catch me, try to text me
Five Chevys front the house, I'm inside smoked out
With some NBA socks on 'cause a nigga ballin', huh
Threw me in the hole, put on hella gold and then I crawled out
Brung them cars out, turned some broads out Underground superstars, now, bitch, what you talkin' 'bout?
I put the homies in position to get millions
Pray to D'Ussé every year I get a new Bentley, thumbing through Benjis
Rose gold Forgis lookin' like the largest pennies underneath th e foreign
Success make you a target in my city
I'm never sleepin', but I dream big
As a teen I watched MTV Crips
Jermaine Dupri had the Continental T in the garage
And said you ain't a big dog unless you got one of these, yeah
And now I'm driving precision because now I'm that nigga
Some of my cars self-park, but I don't trust it All them funky bitches who think they smart play Mario Kart wit h they hearts
See a OG nod slow, I'll low-key tear you apart Simple as pimpin' the pen and throwin' the motherfuckin' though t
Never missing my mark
Game-winner from the three point arc
A dozen Lamborghinis send 'em in a panic
It was madness like March, the watch froze
My watch is in the vault, too icy need, need to thaw out

Yeah
Chevys on switches, baby
Smoke weed in it, post it in your pictures
Hittin' switches on Chef Highway, dippin'

Yeah
