

Situations

Curved Air

Though I am no longer alone
Everybody seems to take my mind away
I love you but it isn't as I planned
I promise you I've done the best I can

Haven't touched any other man
Situation seemed to have been kind to you
I've wished to be beside somebody else
But actions are proof love not thoughts

*See what a fool I've been
See what a fool I've been
I haven't lived my dream

Seems that it will be a long time
For my mind will take in the reality
That life's not as simple as it seems
And night's the only place to keep a dream

Soft dream, sun-color still Warm breeze, high-? loating birds
Every year has brought more fear

Fear

Younger days seem to be easier
Full of fun and things
To keep my mind awake
But now I have to think far someone else
Cannot ever think straight far myself
