

Mommy mommy

D.O.A.

I take a look now, I take a look back at how I was shut up, yeah, I followed the pack I learned that, I wasn't up to specs I was disappointing, I was circumspect

Mommy mommy you always thought I was useless daddy daddy I'll never be your extension mommy mommy I always got in the way daddy daddy I'll never live, live up to that I'm sorry I ain't no doctor or lawyer I'm sorry I ain't no big boss wanker I guess there was too much direction I guess there was too much correction

Ain't it funny, I love what you hate ain't it funny, you loathe what I know is great
