

From the Blind

Dååth

Seasons pass by the shells
Of the names unknown
Silent a void of thought darkening
Cells of the mind
Taken from the blind
Truth left behind
Scorn from all their kind
Their lives we bind
Within the throne
Secret overtone
The people chanting
Not heard as they're trampled over
Rise in fury
The start of progress
The broken promise
You place your full trust (in)
Rise in fury
The start of progress
The broken promise
You place your...

Reason spills out like
Our shouts to ears unheard
Your thoughts devoid of enlightening
Cells of the mind
Scorn from all their kind
Their lives we bind
Within the throne
Secret overtone
The people chanting
Not heard as they're trampled over
Rise in fury
The start of progress
The broken promise
You place your full trust (in)
Rise in fury
The start of progress
The broken promise
You place your...

This avulsion, eager for divulsion
Thrust on limitless livestock, our battle waged
From the mist of diversion, our force shall further
The reign of our blood, for ages to come
Thoughts behind lock and key
Talk inside 'cause they won't go free
Silence is their only decree
Die inside 'cause they can't go free

Reason spills out like
Our shouts to ears unheard
Silent a void of thought darkening
Cells of the mind

Scorn from all their kind
Their lives we bind
Within the throne
Secret overtone
The people chanting
Rise in fury
The start of progress
The broken promise
You place your full trust (in)
Rise in fury
