Time is your friend Time is your pal Don't you try to fight her Time is a mustang That you cannot tame So don't you try to ride her Time is a ship Caught in the wind Never always sinking Time makes your bed Then sleeps with your head Sometimes I can't stop thinking That I'm wasting so much of my life Waiting for tomorrow Ride the rocket Kiss the locket The sand is running down Burn the candle Turn the handle I am here I'm now Time is your blood Pulsating flood And everybody bleeds it Time is a wish You can throw coins at a fish But your still gonna have to feed it Time was my girl Timeless white pearl She left me on the shoreline I'll think of her She's forever After and before time I'm wasting so much of my life Waiting for tomorrow
