

Hope Your Dreams Come True

Daisy Chainsaw

Hello I'm you're saviour
You're such individuals
Everyone agrees

It's going to feel so good
Now I'd pay a high price
To feel nothing at all

I hope all your dreams come true
I hope all your dreams come true

You're sympathy I don't need
My brick wall it stays up
It took so long to build

I hope all your dreams come true
I hope all your dreams come true

People all need a hero
To touch they're souls is easy

I hope all your dreams come true
I hope all your dreams come true

If they don't what will you do?
