

Wynona's Big Brown D.Va

Dan Bull

Hana song, professional gamer
They replaced that with real weapons and trained her
In the method of wrecking up with the mech that they gave her
Now you're reckoning with danger for reckless behavior
'Cause she's a combat veteran aiming
For the level cap IRL, better make way for her
Check in the papers in the section for sport
Under electronic games there's not a speck of report

Cut them up into pieces
They are my last resort
I'd rather watch her streams
If I want to see that e-sport

It's high noon
Better ride soon
If we're to reach Korea
GG fever, see D.VA's
Mech, wreck, wreck
Then eject careers
(No one's beating my high scores)

So competitive, hope you never get
In the ring with the D.VA, she's a mechanist
Masochist in a Messerschmidt no passengers
Laughing as you're left messier than this passage is Livestreaming life, sweet as ice cream
Me living D.VA's lifestyle? Nice dream
She'll play to win, still make you grin
While putting you straight in the bin
The newspaper's in

GG, can't you understand?
So easy, no one stands a chance
Oh, game changer, □□□
'Cause once I play □□□□

I don't want to do this but excuse me madam
Meka's more than a new tin can
And man when you've been battered with a fusion cannon
Then it usually proves to reduce these fallacies
And allegations gamers are lame

It's a shame they're the same people wasting away
Watching tv, eight straight hours a day
And have the arrogant face to say how we should play

If that was the case, then D.VA wouldn't have employment
Keeping you safe, flicking the channel for enjoyment
Temperature rising high, near boiling
That reminds me what time is it boy?

It's high noon
Better ride soon
If we're to reach Korea
GG fever, see D.VA's
Mech, wreck, wreck

Then eject careers
(Blame it on the lag)

GG, can't you understand?
So easy, no one stands a chance
Oh, game changer, □□□
'Cause once I play □□□□

□□, watch out, out with my gun
□□, noob while □□ number one
□□ no room for apology
'Cause □□□□

It's high noon
Better ride soon
If we're to reach Korea
GG fever, see D.VA's
Mech, wreak, wreck
Then eject careers

It's high noon
Better ride soon
If we're to reach Korea
GG fever, see D.VA's
Mech, wreak, wreck
Then eject careers
