

Zarya Codes

Dan Bull

Drums

Ready? Huh, ooh

Who's that minx there with the pink hair?

The flair of a punk with the physique of a big bear

That's quite a kink, yeah, so let's keep it clean and friendly

Don't need to tell you her cannon's grieving me with penis envy

Whoops! I've lowered the bar and set the scene already

She's doing the opposite and lifting stuff that's bleeding heavy

It's Aleksandra Zaryanova, commonly known as Zarya

But you know that

Zarya singing an aria

Bringing a cannon and flinging a barrier

Strong as a mountain, benching a thousand pounds

So bound to be able to carry ya

(Zarya singing an aria, Zarya singing an aria)

Zarya singing an aria

Bringing a cannon and flinging a barrier

Strong as a mountain, benching a thousand pounds

So bound to be able to carry ya

(Bound to be able to carry ya, bound to be able to carry ya)

Zarya singing an aria

Bringing a cannon and flinging a barrier

Strong as a mountain, benching a thousand pounds

So bound to be able to carry ya

No poor performance, she's a walking fortress

She could arm wrestle with the forks of forklifts

All this talk gets a bit repetitive for her

I bet she would prefer if we ignored it altogether

Guess her personality type is quite serious

That's what happens living your life in Siberia

Ideally, you'd flee the crisis and up sticks

But she saw the kind of sights you shouldn't at just six

Tik-tok, never gets up late, first thing at the crack of dawn

She sets up weights, getting breakfast prepped fast

Cooking up pierogi

Do a couple reps as she's stacking up the bodies

And that's ironic 'cause her body is stacked

Nobody's body is as big a body as that, a world record

That's probably a fact but there's no reputable body of stats

To reliably verify it as that, powering up the barrier

Hell yup, while the cannon is amassing casualties to tally up

A graviton surgeon who'll grab you by the lughole

Swirling you 'round and then she'll drag you down the plughole

Zarya singing an aria

Bringing a cannon and flinging a barrier

Strong as a mountain, benching a thousand pounds

So bound to be able to carry ya

(Zarya singing an aria, Zarya singing an aria)

Zarya singing an aria
