

January

Dan Croll

Never really felt a way like this before
Must be the moon
Or maybe the month I'm in
Given the state I'm in

Never really felt a low like this before
Stealing my thunder
Dragging me under
Must be the month I'm in

You may have only just caught my eye
But it's right before my longest goodbye
January, is coming too soon
And it's been really good to know you

Never really had a home to call my own
Since I've been moving around
This music's got me travelling round
And feeling down

Sorry for taking so long to let it show
But now I'm letting you know
That I'm letting you go
I'm letting you go

You may have only just caught my eye
But it's right before my longest goodbye
January, is coming too soon
And it's been really good to know you
Been really good to know you

Must be the month I'm in
Dragging me under
Must be the month I'm in
Dragging me under

But now I'm letting you know
That I'm letting you go
Stealing my thunder
Must be the month I'm in

You may have only just caught my eye
But it's right before my longest goodbye
January, is coming too soon
January, too soon
January, is coming too soon
January, too soon
