

Friends

Dan Hill

You're looking into me
I wonder what you see
Well I don't care if it's not light
Still I'd love to sleep with you tonight

And I'm... I'm looking into you
Slightly scared it's true
Just hoping that you'll say
I'm lonely, please stay

And let's be friends, let's be lovers
Let's be all that lies in between
I close my eyes, you show my colors
That I've never seen

And here we are so shy
And still I've gotta try
We gotta say and do and ask
As we believe
Just tell me
You know I'll leave, but please

Let's be friends, let's be lovers
Let's be all that lies in between
Close your eyes, I'll show your colors
That you've never seen
Whoa, you've never seen
