

I Fall All Over Again

Dan Hill

I can't believe we met like this, is it just coincidence
I had a feeling I'd be seeing you again
You're every bit as beautiful as the last time we met
When you told me you were leaving and going back to him
How I wish that I could tell you it's all in the past
But I was never good at lying and baby, since you asked

I don't wanna hear that song again from the night we first met
I don't wanna hear you whispering things I'd rather forget
I don't wanna look into your eyes, cos you know what happens next
We'll be making love and then I fall all over again

I can't begin to tell you just how sorry I am
That the man you built your dreams around just broke your heart again
I think I know the feeling cos I once loved you so much
That I swore I'd rather die than live a day without your touch
If I held you in my arms you know I'd never let you go
But this ain't the time or place to get emotional

I don't wanna hear that song again from the night we first met
I don't wanna hear you whispering things I'd rather forget
I don't wanna look into your eyes cos you know what happens next
We'll be making love and then I'd fall all over again

You were crying when you kissed me
Then you walked out that door
Oh, you were always such a mystery
I still dream we're making love
Than I stop myself because

I don't wanna hear that song again, from the night we first met
I don't wanna hear you whispering, things I'd rather forget
I don't wanna look into your eyes cos you know what happens next
We'll be making love and then I fall all over again
I fall all over again
