

Only You

Dan Seals

I know that you're the one
Just as sure as the sun sets over the sea
And when the day is done
All my life has become, you've given to me
While the poets could say it so fancy and fine
I choose a simple way where every word is mine

And it's only you,
Cross my heart, it's true
And we'll see it through
Cross my heart for me
There's only you

Along this winding road
There are warm days and cold
Blue skies and gray
But darlin', all I know
That my love, grows stronger each day
'Cause we planted on a seed on a warm summer's night
And now it's a flower in bloom, reaching for the light

And it's only you,
Cross my heart, it's true
And we'll see it through
Cross my heart for me
There's only you

So come lay down beside me, let's dream us some dreams
'Cause I am planning my life and you're in every scene

And it's only you,
Cross my heart, it's true
And we'll see it through
Cross my heart for me
There's only you
