

Water Under The Bridge

Dan Seals

For the first time in a long time I saw her last night
I stood face to face with the love of my life
She laughed, and I smiled, and we talked for a while
I held her close as I told her goodbye

She said, "I'm sorry I hurt you the way that I did"
And I said, "Don't worry

It's just water under the bridge
Tears that I've already cried."
I couldn't tell her my love never died
It's just water under the bridge
The river just never runs dry.

You can never go back, it's been said many times
But I've never left in my heart and my mind
Though I've done my best to go on with my life
Those memories never stop flowing by,

Just like water the bridge
Tears that I've already cried
I 'll never tell her my love never died
It's just water under the bridge
The river just never runs dry.

No, you can't stop those feelings that flow deep inside
Just like water the bridge
