

Your Love

Dan Seals

Well I've been washed in the rain
And dried in the sun
Had the battle rounds with the devil
And I'm still not gone
When I finally hit bottom
And I thought my life was through
There was one real hope shining down
And that was you

Your love brought me back again
I'm gonna make it
Your love is another chance
I'm gonna take it
You gave me an open heart
I'll never break it
No I know I never would have made it
Without your love

I was lost and alone
Out in the cold
And the part of my life that was left was getting hard to hold
I was down so deep in the darkness
I could not see
But your hands held a light of love
From it reached for me

Your love brought me back again
I'm gonna make it
Your love is another chance
I'm gonna take it
You gave me an open heart
I'll never break it
No I know I never would have made it
Without your love

Your love brought me back again
I'm gonna make it
Your love is another chance
I'm gonna take it
You gave me an open heart
I'll never break it
Though I know I never would have made it
Without your love

Your love brought me back
I'm gonna make it
Your love is another chance
I'm gonna take it
You gave me an open heart
I'll never break it
No I know I never would have made it
Without your love
