

Lyrics Lie

Dance Gavin Dance

I need to take some time, I focus on my brand
Learn to love myself for who I am
Find my destiny written in sand
And let it all go to my head

Well some of you guys asked about
How I fit this in my mouth

It was real real nice to meet you
Hope you learned what I had to teach you
Got my chips stacked up to beat you, beat you
If the world doesn't defeat you
If the mob doesn't delete you
Nobody even really needs you
Anyway

Remember when we felt alive?
No, I don't think so!
Remember when we almost died?
That never happened!
Remember when you tried to kiss her
But she was gay and liked your sister?
I don't remember at all, I guess sometimes lyrics lie!

Read some Plato, Faulkner, read some Rand
Photos on Mt. Fuji in Japan
Went to Paris, Rome, and Kyrgyzstan
And let it all go to my head
Now I'm all cultured and educated
Quite qualified to be the one that made it
I've got what it takes to inspire you

Well some of you guys asked about
How I fit this in my mouth

It was real real nice to meet you
Hope you learned what I had to teach you
Got my chips stacked up to beat you, beat you
If the world doesn't defeat you
If the mob doesn't delete you
Nobody even really needs you
Anyway

Remember when we felt alive?
No, I don't think so!
Remember when we almost died?
That never happened!
Remember when you tried to kiss her
But she was gay and liked your sister?
I don't remember at all, I guess sometimes lyrics lie!

Sorry, didn't mean to flex
Just sit back down and learn from the best
I was born with a silver spoon
Feeding me pure fortitude
Confidence and stamina
Focused like a camera

I am, I'm a goddamn animal
Oh, everything comes natural

It was real real nice to meet you
Hope you learned what I had to teach you
Got my chips stacked up to beat you, beat you
If the world doesn't defeat you
If the mob doesn't delete you
Nobody even really needs you
Anyway
