

Things

Danger Radio

Cover it up and keep a distance the anger that burns inside of me will put up with all your flaws and mistakes
Oh, how you take it out on me

You're telling yourself that I was wrong you believe all the lies he fed to you Cause girl if you wanted something sincere
I know that you'll never pull through

Waiting for the day you turn yourself around

Can't stop feeling the things I feel
Locked into something so surreal
You have me going crazy
Have it all wrong if you think
you can walk out on me

I'm secured in love and can't describe it
How could it have occurred to you
And while your asleep alone in your bed He's out all night with someone new

Waiting for the day you turn yourself around

Can't stop feeling the things I feel
Locked into something so surreal
You have me going crazy
Have it all wrong if you think
you can walk out on me

Waiting for the day you turn yourself around

Can't stop feeling the things I feel
Locked into something so surreal
You have me going crazy
Have it all wrong if you think
you can walk out on me

Can't stop feeling the things I feel
Locked into something so surreal
You have me going crazy
Have it all wrong if you think
you can walk out on me
