Hey baby, don't you walk so fast
Hey baby, don't you walk so fast
The dream of another world
Haunted my head and sent me in a whirl
But honey, don't you walk so fast
And though you think the sky's gone gray
And love has just flown away
Hey baby, don't you walk so fast
'Cause you were right all the time
We love you baby, now your feeling fine
Say honey, don't you walk so fast
Not so fast, not so fast
