

Never Get To Sing The Blues

Daniel Lavoie

Sittin' in the morning sittin' in the evenin'
Just dreamin' about the blues
Sittin' in the morning sittin' in the evenin'
Just dreamin' about the blues

I got a lady so damn fine
I never get to sing the blues

Can't seem to feel rejected
Can't seem to feel dejected
So how am I to feel those blues
Not feelin' down and out and sad
A feelin' that I never had
So how am I to feel those blues

I got a lady so damn fine
I never get to sing the blues

Can't seem to feel rejected
Can't seem to feel dejected
So how am I to feel those blues
Not feelin' down and out and sad
A feelin' that I never had
So how am I to feel those blues

I got a lady so damn fine
I never get to sing the blues

I ask her to mistreat me
I'm beggin' her to beat me
But she just smile and pinch my cheek
I tell her that I'm runnin'
With a dozen other women
She knows I ain't left home for weeks

I got a lady so damn fine
I never get to sing the blues
