

Break It Or Heal It

Daniel Lioneye

Listen to me I've done all I can I'm not the man you think I am whatever it is I don't have it take it or leave it, non believer please read my suicide note

break it or heal it a black heart I filled with my lies it stays where you leave it veiled in a swarm of flies spare me the tears, I don't care anymore I'm sick with fear burnt out to the core for whatever it's worth, I am sorry nobody knows what it feels like nobody cares but it's alright you keep on feeding the flames of my corpsefire and I still keep trying to forgive and forget you. she keeps on feeding the flames of my corpsefire and you still keep trying to forgive&forget her. just forgive&forget her.
